

SYRACUSE WEEKLY EXPRESS

Published every Wednesday at No. 22 Warren Street, Syracuse, N. Y. STEPHEN STRONG, Editor and Proprietor.

Subscription Price: One Year, $1.00; Six Months, $0.50; Three Months, $0.25.

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT: Every new or old subscriber who pays for the EXPRESS one year in advance will receive:

For 50 cents in addition to the subscription price of $1.00, making in all $1.50, he will receive a copy of "Our Family Physician," a complete and reliable medical work of 484 pages.

For 50 cents in addition to the subscription price of $1.00, making $1.50 in all, he will receive by mail without further charge 30 complete books.

For 10 cents in addition to the subscription price of $1.00, making $1.10 in all, he will receive by mail without further charge a copy of "The American Live Stock Manual," an invaluable aid to the farmer.

For $1.00 in addition to the subscription price of $1.00, making $2.00 in all, he will receive "The New England Fireside," and the 15 instruction books and art album.

REMEMBER that these offers are open to any new subscriber who pays for a year's subscription in advance or to any old subscriber who pays for his paper a full year in advance—and to no others.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT—At a heavy expense we have just arranged to club with that bright, pure and sparkling periodical, "Sunshine for Youth."

Every subscriber can tell for himself how his account stands. The date following his name stamped on the paper each week shows to what time the subscriber has paid.

THE WEEKLY EXPRESS, Syracuse, N. Y. Sworn Statement of Circulation: The average circulation of THE EXPRESS for the last year, as appears by the publisher's sworn statement, was 5,310 Copies.

Woman suffragists are cheered by the news that two million women voted at the local elections in England this month.

The Michigan House of Representatives has passed a bill which is something of a novelty in the punishment of capital crimes.

A letter which severely criticized President Harrison was recently published, and it was charged that Colonel W. W. Dudley was the author of it.

There is nothing so good as a letter from you, and I am sure you will be glad to receive one from me.

This proves the statements made some time ago that President Harrison had turned the cold shoulder on Colonel Dudley.

PRESERVE THE FORESTS.

President Harrison has few more important questions before him than the preservation of the forests, and he may well give heed to the arguments which were urged by the delegates of the American Forestry Congress, who called upon him Wednesday, Governor Beaver of Pennsylvania, the president of the congress, headed the delegation, and Senator Hawley of Connecticut was the principal speaker.

THE YOW OF WASHINGTON.

Read in New York, April 28th, 1889, the Centennial Celebration of the inauguration of George Washington as the first President of the United States.

THE ROCKWELL AND HASKELL CASE.

The Rockwell and Haskell case was settled before the Supreme Court of the State of New York.

COBLENZ.

COBLENZ, April 27.—The fare for the round trip to Syracuse and return on Tuesday will be $1.15.

COURT CASE PROCEEDINGS.

C. T. Braynor Gets a Verdict—Richard Braynor against H. Fairbank.

Extending the Postoffice Delivery.

Beginning to-day the free delivery system of the Syracuse Postoffice will be extended to cover from the Jamesville toll gate east to Ostrom avenue, taking in the "Rose Settlement," and to the schoolhouse beyond, thence to the Syracuse Driving park; also west through South street three blocks and south in South Geddes street two blocks; also in Roberts avenue two blocks north.

CENTRAL NEW YORK

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN INTERIOR COUNTIES.

A PLEthora of the Life and Activity of the Rich Agricultural and Manufacturing District That Surrounds Us.

Women's Corner.

BOWERS CORNERS, April 30.—S. D. Arnold has been remodeling his store. The rain has made grass and wheat start nicely.

Brigadeport.

BRIDGEPORT, April 30.—Miss Jennie Phelps is better. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Long was buried last Friday.

Canastota.

CANASTOTA, April 27.—Royal D. Sward of this place, Miss Louisa Goe of Oneida Valley were married at the home of the bride's parents yesterday.

Delphi.

DELPHI, April 30.—A. Pickney of Canastota Valley, in visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Frazier, Garro Houghtaling of Baldwinsville is the guest of Jerome Hill, Richard Foyle and family here removed to Syracuse.

Canastota.

CANASTOTA, April 27.—A. W. Wheeler of Schoenectady is visiting at F. Hubbard's.

Canastota.

CANASTOTA, April 29.—Noyes P. Chapman, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died yesterday.

Canastota.

CANASTOTA, April 29.—The Barley and Brewster places are being completed.

Canastota.

CANASTOTA, April 27.—The fare for the round trip to Syracuse and return on Tuesday will be $1.15.

REUBEN WOOD'S SONS,

72 AND 74 SOUTH SALINA STREET.

Wheels for the Men, Wheels for the Boys, Wheels for the Girls. Catalogue Free.

Immense Stock. Prices Way Under and had ordered food, which arrived in the afternoon, he was discharged.

Lebanon.

LEBANON, April 30.—Miss Ella Baker of Earlville visited friends in this place last week.

Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, April 24.—Miss Ella Clementine Rodgers, lecturer for the State Temperance society, spoke in the M. E. church last Sunday evening.

Fayetteville.

FAYETTEVILLE, April 27.—The centennial will be observed here. The Baptists, Presbyterians and Methodists will hold their services in the Baptist church.

Fulton.

FULTON, April 24.—A pleasant social event occurred this afternoon by the marriage of Miss Rebecca F. Stewart to Walter L. Baldwin of Syracuse.

Jordan.

JORDAN, May 1.—All the bells in the village were rung at 4 o'clock yesterday morning to usher in the centennial.

Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, April 24.—The new St. Joseph's church at this place will be dedicated by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Ludden on Thursday, May 12th.

Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, April 29.—In accordance with the proclamation of President Harrison in observing the centennial day of his ministry and the thirty-first of the evening in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church instead of a morning service.

Orisco.

ORISCO, April 28.—The laying of the corner-stone of St. Patrick's church at Orisco took place today at 10 o'clock by the pastor, Father O'Reilly of Pompey.

POMPEY.

POMPEY, April 30.—The Pompey band, together with the Jamesville and Indian-Valley bands, gave a concert at the hall building on the night of the 29th.

Freeble.

FREEBLE, April 30.—Complaint has been entered at headquarters for driving upon the sidewalks.

Shaneateles.

SHANEATELES, April 24.—At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees, held Saturday evening, privilege was granted to the Shaneateles Water company to furnish the village with water for a period of five years.

South Butler.

SOUTH BUTLER, April 30.—H. A. and George F. Graves of Wolcott were in town Wednesday.

South Onondaga.

SOUTH ONONDAGA, April 27.—The J. O. C. T. from the Pomona reception, organized by their band, visited the village this week.

Stiles.

STILES, April 30.—Miss Jennie Givens and Mr. David Winchell were married in Syracuse last Wednesday afternoon.

Texas.

TEXAS, April 30.—"Dick" Mosher moves into Frank Dewitt's house.

West Monroe.

WEST MONROE, April 30.—Julian Beardsley is building a new house.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

The trial of Alfred DeLong for burglary and grand larceny was finished in the Court of Sessions on Tuesday afternoon.

Orisco.

ORISCO, April 28.—The laying of the corner-stone of St. Patrick's church at Orisco took place today at 10 o'clock by the pastor, Father O'Reilly of Pompey.

Pompey.

POMPEY, April 30.—"Nob" Sherman's house in the upper end of the village caught fire on Monday.

NONE SUCH BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

FULL A SCORE KILLED.

Terrible Disaster on the Grand Trunk Road—Ont., April 30.—The most terrible railway accident which has occurred on the Grand Trunk railroad for years, took place about two miles west of this city at 7 A. M. Monday.

Frank J. Garnett's Alleged Forgery.

Frank J. Garnett was brought from Skaneateles and arraigned in Police court Monday, accused of passing a false check for seventeen dollars on Hiram Grove, keeper of the Grove Hotel, Fayetteville.

Struck by a Bullet.

Joseph Ferris of Watuta, while peddling milk in East Fayette street on Monday, was struck in the right ear by a spent bullet.

Nothing is better for BOYS!

BOYS!

If your boy wants new clothes bring him to our store. We will please him in the style and fit and you with the quality and price.

BOBBY LITTLE SUITS FOR THEM.

Our department for little folks this season is replete with Jersey 2-Piece Suits That Are Very Attractive.

BRING THE BOYS IN.

KENT & MILLER, CLOTHIERS, 130 to 134 So. Salina St. SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Pitcher's Castoria advertisement with logo and text.